

PREFAB

PREFAB

We have years of experience in producing cost-effective, individually designed, prefabricated houses and components such as wall blocks, roof trusses, joist cassettes, roof cassettes and noise barriers. Manufacturing encompasses everything from residential buildings to industrial, agricultural and educational buildings. We also work with architects, designers and other players in the market. Our flexible and efficient production is based on our employees' extensive experience in the wood and construction industry.